

Ken's Krew, Inc. Vocational Training Coordinator

Ken's Krew, Inc. is seeking an energetic, professional, former special education teacher or social worker, to join us as a full-time or part-time vocational training coordinator. This person must be comfortable working independently, although with the support and collaboration of a dedicated team. This dedication to our population is a fundamental requirement for the applicant.

Ken's Krew, Inc. is a nonprofit agency, founded by parents of children with special needs, that places and trains young adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities (ID/DD) in competitive employment. Through our partnership with a variety of companies, including the largest home improvement retailer in the U.S., Ken's Krew has been able to support the employment and independence goals of over 575 individuals with ID/DD in seven states in the 20 years since its inception.
